Managing Money

Financial education is a crucial part of the school curriculum and something we want to develop further at Deptford Park as we believe it is critical in the development of children's knowledge, skills and attitudes to money as they go through life. We think that parents play a critical role in helping us ensure our children are financially literate. We'd like to encourage you to sign up to the Parents' hub on the Money Heroes website. (It's totally free!) There are lots of superb activities for you to do with your children at home to help them to develop the skills and knowledge they need.

We look forward to sharing more with you during our Money Week at school in the next couple of weeks.

Many thanks
